Summary: The April 25th working group meeting began with a welcome from the co-chairs. Jonathan McCann then walked members through the draft conditions for the Further Processing Application (FPA) for the project, and reviewed updated buffer renderings. Next, he updated the group on where AU stands with the Jacobs Field sound barrier wall, which was still awaiting the final Zoning Order, he then took numerous questions from neighbors. The meeting closed out with an open floor discussion on other facilities issues, which included discussions on maintaining AU's vegetation buffer with Westover and key fob access for nearby neighbors.
