

American University Neighborhood Partnership Facilities Planning Working Group Summary

July 20th, 2022

Key Discussion Points:

- Welcome, review agenda and introductions
- Jacobs Field Sound Barrier
- Marabar Art Installation
- AU Community Garden Relocation
- Adjourn

Summary: The meeting began with Jonathan McCann introducing himself as the new Co-chair representing American University. After a round of introductions, Jonathan presented initial information on the Jacobs Field Sound Barrier, which will be the first facilities project under the 2021 Campus Plan, this included outlining the completed and pending actions for the project's delivery. He took numerous questions from neighbors on details of the barrier and the Zoning Commission conditions as it relates to the project. Next, Jonathan presented on the Marabar art installation on AU's main campus, as well as AU's intent to relocate the community garden, which is happening in coordination with the Fort Gaines Citizens Association. The meeting closed out by looking at future potential meeting dates in August.
