Explore DC

- “Service is not a moment, it’s a mindset”
- August 21st and 22nd, 530 first-year students in the Explore DC program went to every quadrant of DC to perform community service at local urban farms, food justice organizations, public schools, and various other non-profits.
- At-Large Councilmember Robert White and spoken-word poet Kondwani Fidel inspired our students with remarks about social justice, equity, and service.

Tenleytown Art All Night

The 4th annual Art All Night returned to Tenleytown on Saturday, September 14th. The festival celebrated the visual and performing arts, showcasing the diverse talents of our city's creative community, including three American University a capella groups. Public and private spaces transformed into pop-up galleries and performance spaces including the Katzen Arts Center. Over 13,000 people attended.
